GRIN Verlag GmbH. Paperback. Condition: New. 74 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.2in. Bachelor Thesis from the year 2013 in the subject Health Science, grade: 1, 4, Neisse University Grlitz, course: V282129, language: English, abstract: The Act on the Reform of the Market for Medicinal Products, which entered into force on the 1st of January 2011, brought about a fundamental change in the balance of power on the pharmaceutical market. This thesis therefore sets out to answer the following question: What impact does the early benefit assessment in the context of the Act on the Reform of the Market for Medicinal Products have on the stakeholders of the healthcare system To answer this question, this work first presents the theoretical foundations of the law, of the early benefit assessment and the bodies involved. It then takes stock of the decisions taken to date before describing the impact on the selected stakeholders. The following findings were reached: As the representative of the statutory health insurance funds, the Central Federal Association of Statutory Health Insurance Funds has gained in power and now decides, as a member of the Federal Joint Committee, on the added benefit of a drug and, depending on this...
