

Ways of the Student: Survival Guide for Success in College and Your Future Career (Paperback)

By Timothy C Flemming

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wake up! Wake up! This is the survival guide that will allow you to be different from everyone else and every student that does not read this guide. I am presenting a fast-track, down and dirty roadway that will lead you directly to success. Business guidelines are going to be applied to you, the student, as if you were a new employee in business starting your career. This survival guide is your shortcut taken from years of experience to not only get you through college successfully, but to get you through your business life or whatever career you choose. I offer you insights based on my experience which includes over 25 years in banking, the last 18 as President and CEO of a multi-branch operation with over 100 employees. The best experience and the most affordable for you that I can share are my three children who have successfully graduated from college in four years. What you are about to read and experience is no different than what each of them heard and practiced daily. So don't shake your head and think...
