Language: English Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Sociological Progress in Mission Lands To my Father Idol of my boyhood Companion of my manhood Always living in the spiritual world Passionately devoted to the Kingdom of God In advocacy of peace In civic reform In missionary leadership Who went home from the firing line Introduction By James A. J. Efeio, PA. D., D. D., President Western Theological Seminary ONLY a few interested observers are aware of the stupendous changes being wrought in heathen society by the leaven of Christianity. It is common enough for supporters of foreign missions to use the arithmetical test as an index of the progress and influence of their faith in pagan lands, but only the very thoughtful take into consideration the social revolution which the preaching of the Gospel has effected in the ancient civilizations of Asia and the rude tribes of Africa and the Islands of the Sea. A study of sociological progress in missionary lands constitutes a modern apologia not only for foreign missions, but also for the social power of the Gospel. Our age has witnessed a singular spectacle the denial of the social dynamic of Christianity, not only by the out-and-out socialist but also by those who are within the pale of the Church, It is not strange that Karl Marx and his followers wish to destroy the idea of God as the keystone of a perverted civilization and denounce Christianity as the bulwark of the present economic system. On the other hand, it is certainly startling to discover the defiant attitude of many earnest men and women, members of the Church or 7 8 Introduction standing in sympathetic relations with her, who are working...
