JME Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you struggling with the same old creative writing books? It's time to study storytelling through a different light. Writing Your Novel Using the Bible as Your Guide breaks down the book of Genesis into comprehensive writing tools presented in an easy to understand how-to book. Written by critically acclaimed author, Jaimie Engle, this unique approach digs deeper than basic creative elements such as character, setting, theme, arc, and plot. By going through each of the 50 chapters in Genesis, the manuscript focuses on specific elements such as foreshadowing, parallels, the nemesis, forcing change, names hold meaning, and even the truth of death and taxes. Why the Bible? The Bible uses the same literary devices in storytelling that most authors struggle with today. Foreshadow. Symbolism. The Power of 3s. And, even if you don't believe in the Bible, it is the longest running publication in history with more copies sold and more translations than any other book in the world. Setting your novel apart from the rest is a choice. You must give your character's depth, believability, a connection to your reader and this doesn't happen by reading and implementing a beginner's writing book. A few tricks include: Plotting Coincidence - Coincidence happens in real life and it must happen in your story world. Forcing Change - Sometimes, you must craft problems that will force your characters to change their situation and propel the plot forward. Otherwise, your story can become stale and lifeless. Motivation Lies - We...
