His being anxious to become useful, will have its bearing in recommending him to society. Her being diffident, makes her appear awkward. Her being unacquainted with the customs of society, is very unfavorable to her reception. His having been a merchant, has qualified him for his present position. His haying been a member of that body, frees us from all responsibility in that respect. His being chairman, gives him a commanding influence in that body. His having become a miser, sealed his heart against every benevo lent enterprise. Tbxir being Christians, subjected them to-all kinds of ill treatment My father did not like their being my associates. . . Obtaining property by dishonest means, never made a man happy. They have prevented his securing support. They have broken up his visiting the tavern. Our wanting food proved a fortunate event. Carrying fire-arms, was forbidden by the police. Inflicting wounds upon the feelings of others, indicated a recklessness of spirit. Preparing bis manuscript for publication, occupied bis entire attention. We must prevent their escaping the penalties of the law. You, undoubtedly, regret having been caught in such company. His having been reduced to poverty, was the occasion of his derangement. Your having been persuaded to accompany us, is no reason why you should now abandon us. Their having been persecuted, gained...
