Excerpt: .and the Individual Woman, emphasizing the work of each as an essential part of the whole, without which the work could not come to its fulfillment. The unity of this work, interwoven and interlaced, was well expressed by Mrs. E. A. Osbornson in her talk on The Board: We work together, yet far apart, Hand to hand and heart to heart. A rich discussion followed in which practical suggestions were brought to those present, all of whom were among the doers, -the partners with God, in this matter. We hope to find space in MISSION STUDIES later for some of them. TUESDAY AFTERNOON. The afternoon session of the Workers Conference was opened by Mrs. Lyman Baird s crisp presentation of the attitude of native people Over There in our mission fields towards the new movements of the day. She first bore glowing testimony to...
