By Martini Galen

North Star Press of St. Cloud. Paperback. Condition: New. 144 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.3in. This is an excellent practical hands-on approach to dreams. Galen takes basic Jungian concepts and faithfully translates them into language understandable to everyone . . . a rich and wonderful contribution to the understanding of dreams and the practical application of Jungian psychology. David Schoen, LCSW, MSSW is a Jungian analyst, international author and speaker, and Louisiana poet. His books include Divine Tempest: The Hurricane as a Psychic Phenomenon, and The War of the Gods in Addiction: CG Jung, Alcoholics Anonymous, and Archetypal Evil. With this small but powerful book, Galen Martini has made an enormous contribution to the field of dreamwork. All the wisdom of the psychodynamic approach to dream interpretation has been distilled into these pages with warmth and empathy. The book itself is an aha experience. Tricia Ells, M. M. , M. A.
