

dreams of innocence Dreams of a Godly America

By Todd Nessa

Paperback. Condition: New. 154 pages. When I was growing up as a kid in the 70s and 80s things were different. And hey, they were not perfect days back then. However, I grew up watching sit-com re-runs that were totally innocent and clean cut. Remember those How far have we now come to where Two and a Half Men is now the most popular US sitcom You get the picture Now, I am not saying that this book is all related to TV- far from it. However, if we use something like this that we can all relate to as a type of barometer as to where we are it can get easy to see that we are living in a frog in the kettle world. If you have never heard this analogy before it refers to a frog that will not jump out of a pot of water that will eventually boil so long as the heat is only incrementally increased. This book was written to expose the incremental heat that we have all been exposed to that has gotten us to this world of much more tainted innocence that we all live in. While my book relates to...
