

Rencor: Life in Grudge City

By Matt Wallace

From Parts Unknown Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 188 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Ciudad Rencor (aka Grudge City) the cross-cultural border mecca of wrestling and lucha libre sees its streets bathed in blood after a bizarre museum robbery and hysterical reports of living mummies on the loose. Its now up to the unlikely team of the city's most noble tecnico El Victor and its most notorious rudo El Mil Calaveras to stop pounding on each other, put aside their families three-generation-old rivalry, and bring back the glory days of masked lucha-heroes battling Mexican monsters on the march. Written by Matt Wallace (Envy of Angels, The Failed Cities, Slingers), the former pro-wrestler-turned-scribe of the hit supernatural comedy series Sin du Jour, from a story by From Parts Unknown zine-maestro Keith J. Rainville, Rencor: Life in Grudge City is like 48 Hours or Starsky and Hutch fused with El Santo and the Aztec Mummy. No mere ring or steel cage can contain the blood-feuds, body slams, brass knuckles and bandages that spill onto the streets, turning Rencor City itself into one giant arena. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
