Revelation 12:17 The fire eating dragon has consumed dying flames for centuries. He rekindles them for his own vicious purpose. The woman has lived one thousand years in the flesh rescuing the lost flames from the eternal fire. For generations a war has raged between the woman and the dragon - the mother of angels and the king of suns. They battle to win the favor of the lost spirits. The woman will commission a valiant champion who will face the evil dragon head on. Who will prevail in this ancient battle? Three women . . . Three prophets . . . Three ages. . . The spirit is like an eternal fire that burns within each of us. The greater the spirit the brighter the fire will burn. It s a fire that will never be extinguished. This raging fire inside wants nothing more than to be released to freedom. As the flesh is aging and slowly dying, the fire within grows cold. The prophets of the One must let their light shine to a hopeless world driven into the dark. Fire is life. Fire is light. Fire is truth.
