A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be he best ebook for possibly.

Our aim has been to make it worthy Of preservation, also, from the standpoint of typography, illustration, arrangement, and design. TO Mr. Paul F. Cadman we are particularly indebted for the great amount of time he has given to the preparation of material for this book while in France, and in its final stages while serving as a professor at the University Of California. As before, he was greatly helped by Mr. Bertram Winthrop, of New York, who has made Paris his business headquarters for some years. As in Volume I, use has been made Of the many diaries Of French Officers, with as many quotations as it was deemed advisable to include. These have been procured from Washington, Hartford, Providence, Newport, and Boston libraries and historical societies. The translations, as heretofore, have very kindly been made by Mrs. H. A. Crosby. The Trust Company wishes likewise to thank Hon. Henry M. Hutchings for many valuable suggestions in regard to the material. As before, thanks are due also to Mr. Belden, Mr. Buckley, Mr. Blaisdell, and other officials and employees of the Boston Public Library, for help rendered in searching for material.
