

A Black Soul Cries Out (Paperback)

By Evelena Jennings

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Explore the black soul and mind today through Evelena Jennings poetry collection A Black Soul Cries Out. Color shows the inner conflict between the dissatisfaction that comes from skin color making life difficult vs. the desire to take pride in who we are: Black, black, black don't worry about the color of my skin./ God made the color and the heart that dwells within. The poems honor our ancestors and their struggles, those who slaved in a cotton field or marched with Martin Luther King Jr. The pieces celebrate freedom and remind today's generation to appreciate it. Faith in God as a source of strength weaves throughout the collection as well as the theme that success comes through endurance and hardship. Even if you can't literally take A Walk with Martin, you can come along with Jennings, on her journey so far.
