INGRAM PUBLISHER SERVICES US, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Men and women not only have naturally different communication styles, but unique approaches to parenting as well. While mothers tend to overprotect their kids, fathers tend to push them toward independence. And whereas many experts tend to advocate a united front, Drs. Kyle and Marsha Pruett reveal how Mom and Dad not always being on exactly the same page, which, initially, may seem to cause conflict, can actually strengthen the whole family. Informed by the Pruett's research and extensive experience with parents and children, Partnership Parenting offers a new outlook. In addition to fascinating biological insights, the book features strategies for negotiating common landmine situations from birth to age eight, from discipline and bedtime to helping kids with homework and teaching them responsibility. With wisdom and humour, Partnership Parenting helps couples take advantage of their individual strengths to raise confident children while simultaneously improving their marriage.
