The Phillips Hospital concert without the Meister Glee Singers would seem shorn of some part of its attraction. They shared to the full the favours of the evening for their serious and humorous quartets. Mr. F. A. Sewell was, of course, a completely satisfactory accompanist. Mr. F. Lewis Thomas, who has also given his services for a number of years, and had been announced, was unavoidably prevented from being present. Madame Clara Butt (Mrs. Kennerley Rumford) was among those present. The stage well repaid the trouble which had been taken with its decoration. Handsome flowers and palms were banked all round and along the front, and these were effectively lit up with the electric light, which had been installed by the Bromley Electric Light and Power Co., Limited....
