Yet all those things our grandmothers did, Other Ways supervised in their Of Labor Saving. own homes. Even in my grandmother s time much of the men s tailor work was done at the house, by a tailor who came by the day, bringing his goose with him and who was assisted by the woman of the house. Ah, we do not count half our blessings. We can do so many of the things we wish to do instead of being bound up to wearisome lines of must be s. We do not choose idleness. We choose to read, or write, or drive, or go to entertainments, or converse with friends. We choose to put fresh flowers in our rooms, to concoct dainty desserts, to work outdoors among flowers, or do whatever makes most for happiness. But all this work is actual leisure. Don t...
