C., Home Secretary, Concerning the Proposed Suppression of Literature Tell me, where is the place that men call Hell? Meph. - Under the heavens. Faust. - Aye, so are all things else; but whereabouts? Meph. - Within the bowels of these Elements Where we are tortured and remain for ever. Hell has no limits, nor is circumscribed In one self place: but where we are is Hell; And where Hell is, there must we ever be; And, to be short, when all the World dissolves, And every creature shall be purified, All places shall be Hell that are not Heaven. Faust. - I think Hell is a fable. Meph. - All! think so still, till experience change thy mind. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
