Good job, great kids, and a husband she truly considers her best friend. The only problem she's bored. While on vacation with her husband in Cancun; she's hoping to rekindle some of the fire that has turned to ash over the many years of their marriage. Unfortunately, her husband had other plans, lots of them. Leaving Gin to entertain herself. When she starts a conversation with a handsome stranger at the swim-up bar, the last thing on Gin's mind is an affair. With the encouragement of a couple half her age; her last in day paradise leads her to question everything she thought she wanted out of life. While her husband sets off on a once in a lifetime excursion, she plans to take advantage of his absence, and embark on a life changing afternoon of her own.
