That is, until he and his friend sea captain Amos Harding receive a desperate plea for help from the fledgling wine country to the north. As soon as the two would-be investigators arrive, they find themselves up to their spurs in trouble. Slade learns that the entire valley area is primed like a powder keg, ready to blow over a dispute between a winery, a cattle ranch, and the railroad. What are the stakes? Land, pride, the loss of one man s woman and the love of another s wife. With every person lying through their teeth and primed to kill, Slade and Amos have their work cut out for them!.
