Wings Over Sinai: The Egyptian Air Force During the Sinai War, 1956 (Paperback)

By David Nicolle, Air Vice Marshal Gabr Ali, Tom Cooper

Helion Company, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Sixty years since the tripartite aggression of France, Great Britain and Israel against Egypt, this is the first account about Egyptian military operations during the Suez War of 1956 (or Suez Crisis , as it is known in the West). Based on research with the help of official Egyptian documentation and recollections of crucial participants, this book provides an unique and exclusive insight into the other side of a war that many consider has marked the end of the British Empire . From the Western point of view, the situation is usually explained in quite simple terms: in retaliation for President Gamal Abdel Nasser s nationalisation of the Universal Suez Canal Company - and thus the strategically important waterway of the Suez Canal - France and Great Britain (operating in concert with Israel) launched the operation codenamed Musketeer . Divided into three phases, each shaded into the other; this aimed at obliterating the Egyptian Air Force, occupying the whole of the Suez Canal and toppling Nasser s government. From the Egyptian point of view, backgrounds were much more complex than this. Striving to modernize the country,...
