This pdf will not be simple to start on reading through but extremely enjoyable to see. I have read and i also am sure that i will planning to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. You wont really feel monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you request me).

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I wrote my first poem in 1996 (The Girl). One of my friends convinced me to enter it in a contest sponsored by The National Library of Poetry. A few weeks later I was notified that I was a semi-finalist in North America. I automatically became a member of The International Society of Poets and was invited to their conventions in Washington, D. C. where I competed for Poet of the Year. In both 1997 and 1998. I was honored to be chosen a world semi-finalist for my poems A Window To My Soul and The Princess. Many of my poems have been published in anthologies throughout the United States and the United Kingdom. My poems tell stories of my life, my feelings, my children, my God and current events. I have taken the liberty (with permission) to include four poems in my book that are not my poems, but were written by two people very close to me, my son Toby Rex McLaughlin and my grandson s wife, Jeanne Swansey. I am so very proud of my son s poem because he used this format to explain his feelings for me. My granddaughter-in-law Jeanne Swansey is extremely talented and her poems were written after the deaths of three close relatives. I hope that you enjoy reading these pages. I know that they were inspired by God. Thank you for buying my book.
