He replyd, he would bring me Good News before twice Twenty four Hours went over my head; with which I was very well satisfied. I then enquired into the Disposition of the Chamber, the Strong-Box, the Bags in it, what Marks were upon them, and every Particular both within side and without. The Strong-Box and the Cupboard, which I took a very exact Memorandum of, for the Uses I might have occasion to make of it, , promising to give him further Instructions in due time, and when I saw how our Affair went oh. We said no more of it then, but two Days afterwards Atuilera, as he said he would do, brought me the Impression of the two Keys, and told me what Locksmith I should go to have, false ones made by it. I answerd, twas time to set about the Work, and askd him what time his Master was generally in his Shop, for most of the Bankers in Italy keep Shops; he replyd, from Ten to Twelve, and that every body who came to speak with him, were sure to find him at that time: Tis enough, said he, do you be sure to find out some Excuse to be there at that time, and hearken what I say to your Master, that you may be able to witness to it, if you are required, I desire no more of you. Things being thus...
