Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Both Sides of the Curtain Art and the Stage, delight to honour their senior members - the Stage most of all. This is more to my present purpose, as the Stage admits of a doyenne. At this moment its place of honour is held by an American, Miss Genevieve Ward. Towards the end of March, year by year, and in London where She lives, she has what may be described as a virulent attack of birthday. Her faithful Press trumpets the news of the seizure. The morning mail brings its interviews, its sheaves of letters, and its bouquets by command or otherwise, from both hemispheres. The caller calls - usually to assure her that in her honour Time has performed his favourite trick act of running back, and that she looks younger than ever. This was the even course of the ritual of 1916, when she entered her eightieth year; and the completion of the term was duly celebrated in the same way in 1917.
