

Mr. Germain Goes to Antarctica: Stories and Activities to Promote Character Values and Environmental Awareness (Paperback)

By Roxanne Zusmer

Roxanne Zusmer, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For children, adolescents, and young adults Mr. Germain Goes To Antarctica, based on a true journey, is an inspirational learning experience. The stories and activities in this book are designed to promote character education and environmental awareness, including climate change and sustainability. Readers are provided with information and resources that embrace a wide-ranging scope of the curriculum including reading, language arts, social studies, science, social skills, and personal awareness. Each of the sixteen chapters address two important character values, along with discussion/thought questions, vocabulary and glossary, and activity pages. The stories are based on Mr. Germain's true-life excursion representing the United States as a team member on Mission Antarctica's Voyage 1 expedition. The life-like illustrations are drawn from many of Mr. Germain's actual photographs. Imagine living on a sixty-seven foot yacht for ten days with eight teammates from different countries and cultures throughout the world - eight people who were, in fact, strangers to each other. Add four crew members and you have an interesting picture. The author and illustrator have worked in a collaborative effort to bring an important message...
