Noise Beneath the Apple, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My Headdress Is On Fire.stories from a White Girl growing up on off Indian Land.is a series of deliciously skewed essays, that travel the world from Indian Land to the Australian Outback; single parenting to the Empty Nest. Unearthing stories about an Indian Chief and Bozo the Clown or Kupa Piti and David the Camel, with heart and candor; Jacks full powers of smart wit are engaged. .(and, it s a perfect size for the plane or train.) At first I thought this book was going to be filled with coming of age stories ; imparting wisdom and elevating the soul. Then I realized that people come of age repeatedly during the course of a lifetime, especially women; our first periods, sprouting breasts, losing our virginity, leaving home, marriage, children, divorce, empty nest; not necessarily in that order. I am writing this book, from the shady side of fifty. This is the other side of mid-life, as I doubt I will live to be 106. I assume that like the Horses of the Apocalypse, there are still other coming of ages approaching; signposts to check our progress. Are we where we thought we would be? Do we have that foo-foo dog? The perfect husband? The beautiful house? Where is our picket fence? Are you hearing that Talking Heads song, right now? And you may ask yourself-Well.How did I get here? Then I thought this book would be filled with anecdotes that answered the age old question, What are you going to be when you grow up? It s a question that most people of my generation never got around to answering. They fell into jobs, careers, lives and at some point, surrendered...
