Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Thrush, Vol. 1: A Periodical for the Publication of Original Poetry; 1901 The editor of The Thrush has pleasure in submitting to the public the first number of a periodical which will be published henceforth on the first Saturday of every month. There is, we believe, a large public ready to welcome the expression of beautiful ideas in poetic form and of strength and truth through the medium of beauty. Now that the mass and million of the people are able to read, the time may be ripe for the issue of Poetry in a popular form and at a price within the means of the poorest. There are signs of an awakening of the people to an appreciation of things of joy and beauty. The revival in England of a vigorous art in sculpture; the spread, in the provinces at least (and especially in the North), of a loving regard for music, so keen that it is a factor in the national life; and the undoubted power and freshness exhibited by modern painters are symptoms that must be marked with delight. Amongst us there are unquestionably many sweet singers, possessors of poetic genius. We cherish the hope that by the establishment of a periodical exclusively devoted to the publication of Verse, we shall be able to popularise an enjoyment of poetry and to confer upon multitudes who love green silences in summer-time and cosy quiet firesides when winter nights are long, the delight of companionship, through our pages, with the Poets of a new century, harbingers of the hope that comes at every dawn. It is unfortunately true, that amongst those who cater...
