AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 540 pages. Dimensions: 7.4in. x 5.6in. x 1.3in. What if today's bogeyman, the little bug-eyed aliens called Grays, are not a contemporary version of yesterday's leprechauns? What if they have been abducting humans for centuries, shipping them off to colonize at least one far planet. How would that society have developed - customs, religion, language, government? Early in the 21st century, a young bride goes missing between tube stations on the London Underground. After years believing her abducted, Simon McGregor, her archaeologist husband, received an amulet in the mail with her name, G-I-N-A, scratched on it. A cruel student prank. Finally tracking down the isolated postal address, McGregors car crashes into a van at night carrying a shocking burden, a comatose, alien Gray. McGregor with his younger brother-in-law, Jack Tagg, trace the van back to a suspicious but empty crash site on the moors. They meet Paullo, a tall, pale stranger with business on Earth who leads them to a bodybag on a monster catamaran ferry, to a nighttime UFO high seas rescue at speed, and into the middle of a political and religious power struggle on far-distant Angelus. There ancient Patrician ruling houses may have inherited awesome wildcard talents from alien Gray genetics labs. And that's just the beginning . . . This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
