Annie s Attic, 2015. DVD video. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Everyone agrees that we quilters love fabric and the more we have in our stash, the better! And now you can learn how to take that valuable fabric stash and turn it into beautiful quilts that you ll truly love and enjoy for years to come! Join Gyleen Fitzgerald as she takes you on a quilting journey that will change your life. You ll learn how to make order and harmony from that stash of fabric and how to balance bold prints with smaller prints and in-between prints. You ll understand how to group color families in a scrap quilt to make the project sing. As you follow along in this class, you ll feel empowered to turn to your fabric stash instead of heading to the fabric store when starting a new project! In this class you ll learn how to: Create a visually pleasing fabric choir with a soloist (focal fabric), harmonizer (fabric that bridges the soloist to the choir members), choir members (scraps) and stage (background fabric). . Recognize what makes a bold print work or not work as a quilt s focal fabric. . Cut scraps into precut shapes for faster quilting. . Organize your scraps so you know what s in your stash at any time. . Line antique blocks to add stability and longevity. . Use both precuts and scraps in one quilt. . Cut triangles, diamonds, hexagons, half-hexagons and cones with Gyleen s Polygon and Polygon2 tools. . Turn antique blocks of varying sizes into uniform-size blocks by adding borders and corner triangles. . Make an on-point square pieced border. . Calculate a float border to accommodate any quilt. . Make a pieced scrap backing for any quilt. Class...
