

Of Such a Nature/Indole (Paperback)

By Jose Kozer

The University of Alabama Press, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. An English translation from one of Latin America s most distinguished poets. Jose Kozer is one of the most influential contemporary Cuban poets working today. A key figure in the neobaroque movement within contemporary Latin American poetry, he is one of only three Cubans to ever win the Pablo Neruda Prize given by the Neruda Foundation in Chile. He is the author of close to ninety books, including Este judio de numeros y letras, Bajo este cien, La garza sin sombras, Carece de causa, and Y del esparto la invariabilidad. Kozer is also noteworthy as a key poet of the Cuban diaspora, having left Cuba in 1960 and residing ever since in the United States. Of Such a Nature/Indole is a bilingual edition translated into English by Peter Boyle. In addition, Boyle provides an extensive introduction placing Kozer s work in a critical context. The Spanish word indole can be translated as: a type, a sort, or that sort of thing. The title, Indole, therefore suggests that the poems gathered in this collection, are all instances of specific types of situations, things, or...
