By Misha Handman

Misha Handman. Paperback. Condition: New. 134 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. Mankind built our houses, and our factories. We brought our ships to darken the shores of Neverland. We stole the very name of this place. Everland. When Basil Stark, Everlands premiere (and only) private detective, is approached by a man claiming to be stalked by the legendary Crocodile, hes dubious. The Crocodile hasnt been sighted in years like pirates, Lost Boys, and the legendary Pan, its a relic of the days when Neverland was wild and untamed. Its a new world since the corporations came to the island, and theres no room for monsters in the Everland of 1951. But a case is a case, and a private detective even an ex-pirate cant afford to be choosy. And theres something suspicious going on at Hawthorne Logging. Missing surveyors, fallen stars, and an inquisitive engineer are bad enough, but the most dangerous thing of all The Crocodile might still be around after all. And once it gets your scent, theres no way to throw it off your trail This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
